CALICO SYMPOSIUM 2019

The Computer Assisted Language Instruction Consortium (CALICO) is holding its 36th annual symposium and exhibition the week of May 20, 2019, at the Delta Hotel, In Montreal, Quebec. The symposium is co-hosted by Concordia University and McGill University.

CALICO is an international organization dedicated to research and development in the use of computer technology in language learning: computer-assisted language learning (CALL). The symposium will bring together language educators, programmers, technicians, web page designers, CALL developers, CALL practitioners, and second language acquisition researchers. CALICO's membership consists of close to 300 institutional (libraries, language schools and universities), 100 corporate and 500 individual members. Worldwide membership hails from North America, South America, Europe, Asia and Australia.

Vendors of hardware, software and related services have the opportunity to promote their products and services to this unique forum gathered for exchanging ideas and information about technology and language learning. Opportunities are available through exhibits, sponsorships and/or advertisements.

To secure your participation call the event hotline at 800-996-3233 or 303-690-3233 or access www.milestoneshows.com/calico. Space is limited so act now.
